

OCCUPATIONAL HIGHER CERTIFICATE

JOURNALIST

SAQA ID: 58978 | Credit: 193

NQF Level 5

Overview

The purpose of this qualification is to prepare a learner to operate as a Journalist. A Journalist originates and pitches content ideas, collects and analyses information for journalistic use and creates and delivers content for an array of journalistic purposes in a variety of formats and on various media platforms. The qualification is divided into parts (e.g. Knowledge + Practical + Workplace Modules), learners can receive the Occupational Higher Certificate: Project Manager after completing the required knowledge, practical and workplace modules within 18 months or two years, depending on the mode of study.

Entry Requirement

- Level 4 with
- Mathematical Literacy and
- Communication.

Mode of Offering

- Full-Time Online
- Full-Time Contact
- Part-Time Online

Learning Outcomes

A qualified learner will be able to:

- Originate and pitch content ideas for media use
- Collect and analyse information for journalistic use.
- Create and deliver content for a variety of journalistic purposes and formats.

N: B This qualification is made up of compulsory Knowledge and Practical Skill Modules

Career Prospect

- Journalist
- Multimedia Journalist
- Communication Associate
- Page Designer

Accreditation No: (07-QCTO/SDP050821-3041